

MedRadar instruction

---

The button for selecting the near tracking zone of devices with the application installed. When the button is pressed, you will receive notifications about the presence of devices in the near zone.

The button for selecting the far tracking zone of devices with the application installed. When the button is pressed, you will receive notifications about the presence of devices in the far zone.

Setting the distance for the near and far tracking zone (notional figures are used as units of measurement). For the near zone – 6 is recommended; for the far zone – 2.

Statistics of contacts by groups.

Link to the WHO website with coronavirus sickness rate statistics.